THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Where And How It Will Be Celebrated in This Section.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

It seems that there will be no scarcity of picnics in this section of the moral vineyard on the anniversary of our independence, and the question with every one who wishes to spend a day celebrating will not be "Where can I go?" but "To which place shall I go?"

AT HARDINSBURG.

There will be a picnic and rally at Hardinsburg. This place always has a large crowd on such occasions, and persons who conclude to go there this time can assure themselves that they will not be disappointed. Hardinsburg possesses one of the best bands in this section, and good music can be expected. There will be lots to eat, and the gentlemen conducting the affair will see that all are properly cared for.

THE OLD HELM PLACE.

As usual the gates of the Helm picnic grounds, near Union Star, will be thrown open on this day. This is a famous pleasure resort, well-known for its hospitality. There will be a large crowd there and everybody will have plenty to eat and drink. Anyone going there can confidently expect to have a rollicking good time. The balls in the Union Star school house at night are always good.

GRAHAMTON.

A picnic and barbecue will be the order there. There will be good music and lots of lively, pretty cotton-mill girls to "trip the light fantastic" with the gay beaux present. It has no rival close and a large crowd is expected.

AT TOLINSPOUT, IND.

There will be an open-air Prohibition mass meeting held at Tolinsport. The meeting will be addressed by Judge F. T. Fox, of Louisville, and Rev. H. T. Lampton, of Rockport, Ind. There will also be a medal oratorical contest, a brass band, fine singing and a good time can be expected.

AT DERBY, IND.

You must never count Derby out. As usual there will be a grand ball in Social Hall on the Fourth. This hall room is as large as a picnic ground and accommodates vast crowds of people. There is never anything approximating a failure there, and if you go to Derby, you can positively dance until you get tired, and still the ball will go on.

AT ROCK ISLAND, IND.

The Cannelton people will celebrate by attending the picnic at Rock Island. Beer will flow like water, and music and dancing with other amusements will be the order of the day.

AT LEAVENWORTH, IND.

A picnic and barbecue will be given at Leavenworth. Large preparations are being made to accommodate a vast crowd, and thousands of people are expected to be in attendance, which will no doubt be realized.

NEAR SHERMAN CHURCH.

Down in Sterrett's Bottom, near Sherman church, on the Cloverport and Hawesville road, will be given a picnic, and music and dancing will be the principal amusements.

AT CLOVERPORT.

Probably the largest crowd assembled anywhere in this section on that day will be at Cloverport. The Knights of Pythias picnic and barbecue will be a grand affair. The finest of brass and string bands will furnish music for the occasion. A large floor for dancing will be erected and the merriment will not cease during the entire day. The picnic will be held in the beautiful LaHeist Grove, from which none is more fitted for an occasion like this, and all the meats will be barbecued on the ground. There will be plenty to eat and lots to drink. At 4:30 p. m. the Cloverport cyclists, thirty in number, will form at the corner of Wall and Chestnut streets and parade the whole city.

The colored people will give a ball in their City Hall, which is a large, commodious place, and amply able to accommodate a large crowd. The ball will be opened at 9 o'clock a. m. on the 4th, and the amusements will continue until the morning of the 5th. The Cloverport Colored Cornet band will discourse music for the colored people, while a good orchestra will furnish the music for dancing.

There will be thousands of strangers, both white and black, in Cloverport that day, and everything will be gayety and pleasure.

All the stores will remain open during the entire day, and accommodating clerks and salesmen will be pleased to wait on all who wish to combine a little shopping with a day of pleasure.

We have described above as nearly correctly as possible the various places of amusement that will be open for guests on the anniversary day of our independence, and now our readers can choose as they like.

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS BOYS.

Will take a day off and mingle with their friends in amusement and recreation, in consequence of which the nicest, neatest and best county newspaper published in the United States will make its appearance one day late. The latching of the News office will hang out, however, and all visitors will be made welcome. Call in, renew your subscription or give us your name as a new subscriber.

Rather Steep.

Than take in any other form is what people think and Parks' Tea is for just those folks. It cures constipation and though not a cathartic bows every day.

McDANIELS.

Mr. Jim Carville is on the sick list. Dr. Hart was in Leitchfield last week. Mrs. Ken Rhodes is well enough to sit up. Mrs. Rina Cannon is slightly indisposed. Miss Liza Parsons has returned from Antioch.

Chester, son of Mr. Will Jarboe, is quite sick. The majority of our farmers are in the harvest field.

Mr. Mat Jarboe, of Glendene, was here Sunday.

Miss Kate Glascock was in town one evening this week.

A sewing machine agent has been here doing first-class work.

Mr. Joe Glascock and wife were at Mr. John Mercer's Sunday.

Mr. Tom Frank and family were in Leitchfield this week.

Prayer meeting at the church the first Sunday afternoon. All should attend.

Mr. Sam Parsons and family were here Sunday and visited at Mr. John Mercer's.

A picnic is advertised for this place tomorrow, Saturday and another for July 6th.

Dr. R. H. McMullin was in Glendene this week and brought a new cart home with him.

By request Rev. E. N. Metcalfe preached in the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon.

Bro. Pumphrey and wife passed through town last week enroute to Leitchfield.

Mr. Dan Hicks' heart is in the right place, especially when it comes to dividing cherries.

Miss Ned Hunter, our pretty little blonde, went to Leitchfield this week to visit her father.

We took a drive over the Glendene road last week and we must say the men did excellent work.

The fence has been moved in by the side of Messrs. Rhodes and Fraize fields and a new road cut.

We understand that Mr. Robby Spencer has a new reaper and self-binder. We did not hear whose make.

There is another little daughter at Mr. John Millers. She arrived last Sunday night and weighs nine pounds.

Mr. J. P. Haswell, Jr., of Hardinsburg, was in our town last week, looking after his interests. We wish him success.

Mr. Albert Hays, son of Mr. Dick Hays, of Fordville, is here visiting relatives. He is quite a nice looking boy.

Mr. Chas. Frank has put up a fancy grocery in the post office and carries a nice line of goods. We certainly wish him success.

Several men claimed to have "broke down" in the wheat field this week. They say Dr. Hart is a hustler and put them through.

Anyone requiring assistance to gather cherries would do well to call on Mr. J. Nick Mercer. He also cans them by a "patent process."

Mr. Moore McDonald has again returned to our town to the delight of his numerous friends. We believe he decided not to accept a position in Louisville.

There is a fine cow and calf at the parsonage and the members are to pay for her and keep her as a "parsonage cow." She was brought in by our accommodation steward.

Mrs. Jarboe, our merchant's mother, has been suffering so intensely with a sore foot that walking was almost an impossibility. We certainly hope it will be nothing very serious.

Report came here that a young lady, well-known and beloved here, was to be married in Louisville the 20th of this month. As we have heard nothing more we shall not give names.

Mr. George Haiser and family, of Eveleigh, were here last Sunday night the guests of Mrs. Ned Cannon they went to Glendene the next day. Mr. Haiser sold his store at Eveleigh with the intention of moving to Texas. Not being pleased with the country he is now seeking a location elsewhere.

Mr. C. F. Williams, a prominent young gentleman, of Daviess county, has recently returned from the Willmore College and is expected here soon to visit Rev. Cundiff and family. Mr. Williams is preparing for the ministry and will probably remain during the summer and take a course of study under Bro. Cundiff.

We certainly were not "fishing for a compliment" when we spoke of your "first-best" correspondent, still we would be quite grateful if we did not thank her for the nice things said about our poor "productions." Often we are disgusted and think that each letter is almost a repetition of the preceding one, but then our readers must take into consideration that we have almost the smallest town in existence to write from.

Now we have some startling news. Not that a cyclone has struck our town or a bomb shell exploded in our midst, but that our post office will change hands the first of July. Mr. Dockery will retire and Miss Melissa McDonald will take his place. We understood that Mr. Cleveland would not disturb postmasters unless some one would perform charges against them and we are sure that no one could object to Mr. Dockery for we have heard it said that our town never had a better postmaster, a nicer one we never met. But then he committed the "unpardonable sin" of being a Republican during a Democratic administration. As a change was necessary we think the people have made a wise selection. Miss McDonald is one of our brightest young ladies, intelligent, well read and no doubt will fill the office with credit.

In view of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others, it is not reasonable to believe that it will also be of benefit to you?

BRANDENBURG.

The sick are all on the convalescent list.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Richardson have returned from the Fair.

Miss Nellie Henderson has returned to her home near Irvington.

Mrs. Ken Wathen, Irvington, was to see Mrs. Chapeze Wathen last week.

Miss Annie Mullen, of New Albany, is spending several days with Fannie Pusey Phillips.

Mr. Chapeze Wathen came home sick. The babe is indisposed, so Mrs. Wathen is still with us.

Mr. Blandford Phillips left last Thursday night for Campbellsville to see his mother and family.

Judge C. C. Fairleigh and wife are in Paducah for a two week's stay with their sons, Charles and Tom.

Mr. Chas. Casperke, Sr., and Mr. G. H. Casperke are back from the Windy City, while Dr. Pusey and family are off for the same place.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson and Mrs. H. B. Grinnell failed to make a box party, hence their non-appearance at the "Marine" last Friday eve.

Harry Bell and Stuart Young cheered the mansion of D. W. Lewis last week by their benign countenances and thus helped beguile away the weary hours.

A good many from here attended the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the Catholic Church at Flaherty last Thursday. I failed to materialize on the occasion.

A party of about fifteen young men will leave Owensboro on the Fourth of July on bicycles to see the Chicago curiosity. Our young friend, Elvis Wimp, will be one of the company.

"Tempest in a Tea-pot," "Much Ado About Nothing," "Mountains from Molehills" follow in train when flying rumors start in a community. But "All is quiet along the Potomac," or Ohio if you please.

The young folks had anticipated a rural dance at the old mill on Doe Run last Wednesday night, but the rain descended and they went not. Defer it a little longer and have a regular old English Harvest Home dance.

If I were in Rome I should do as the Romans. Even so when in an insignificant villa and an insignificant show appeared I would not say, "Of course if I were at home I wouldn't patronize such a concern." See?

There was an opposing element to having the entertainment in the Methodist church, and as this town can boast of no place to hold such affairs, we have surrendered the idea. On Thursday night, 29th, the Methodist ladies will give a supper at Masonic Hall.

The Marine Theatre gave a variety show at the river last Friday night. A good crowd greeted it—big, little, religious, very religious, irreligious, were all out in full force. Oh! Consistency thou art a most beautiful jewel, but we certainly do not find thee where we most fondly expect.

Mr. James Lewis and family are home from the greatest exhibition now extant. I have had a most interesting talk with Miss Nellie Lewis who kept a diary and can tell you in her entertaining manner of her delightful trip. By the way, one of the Brandenburg party, a gentleman of renown, and better known as "these United States," was more interested in the Wild West than in the villages on Midway Plaisance. Tom Pusey and Pres Grinnell almost imagined they were back in old Brandenburg when they found themselves with so many of her citizens.

Philas, of Ekron, in the Messenger of last week puts the name of J. D. Jones, Buck Grove, before the county as a man fit to represent us in the next Legislature. One could not, perhaps, gainsay the truth of the assertions made by Philas in regard to the capacity or character of said gentleman, but to whom can he refer when he says, "We do not want to send a boy of a large growth, etc." Has one been suggested? That's so—Morgan Richardson was suggested by Vivian and he is a lengthened boy one way and ex-Sheriff J. D. Hardin is one lengthened another way. If these gentlemen wish to resent or feel aggrieved Philas had better become an athlete or practice striking from the shoulder.

Moore has told us in some of his sweet poems that every one's life is a romance, prosaic though the outward facts may be. As I have no news to communicate I am wishing to-day that my life were a psychological romance of intense interest that I might charm you with several pages without compression or undue brevity. Instead, however, the facts of my existence are so few and simple, life so realistic, that an inspiration would have to come to even—but, "Those whose souls are burdened with desire that may not be gratified had better fling the load aside." So it is funny, and here's hoping for an inspired pen at some future day.

"Put Money in Thy Purse."

How? Save doctor's bills. Always keep on hand a bottle of that finest of remedies, Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure to allay the first irritation caused by a cold. Don't think you can fix up something just as good when for 25c. or 50c. you can have the result of years of practice and experience expended in making this preparation absolutely the best. For sale by Short & Haynes.

"The Preacher" Has a Big Heart in Him.

When it comes to sure enough charity Waller Haynes is proprietor of it in large pieces. Saturday when brakeman Moore was held in $500 bail for the alleged murder of a negro tramp he was unable to furnish security and was committed to jail. His father, who was here, sought diligently for some one with a heart and even failed in Louisville where he has lived always. When Moore had given up all hope and had concluded that he would have to remain in jail until Circuit Court, Waller Haynes voluntarily went to his rescue. This was charity at least to young Moore's father.—Hawesville Plaindealer.

EKRON.

Mr. Will Crutcher, of Garrett, was in town last week.

Miss Essie Bruner visited Miss Edith Craycroft last week.

Mr. Tim McAniff made a flying trip to Irvington last Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom McCans and children visited Mrs. J. K. Bramlett last week.

Miss Katie Thompson, of near Guston, was in town trading last week.

J. O. Cosby and Emmett Daugherty went to Brandenburg Saturday.

Mr. E. A. Guedry and son, Gene, went to Brandenburg last Wednesday.

Mr. J. D. Hardin, of Brandenburg, was in town last week electioneering.

Mr. Massey, of Andyville, visited his son, J. T. Massey, last Wednesday.

Messrs. West and Campbell, of Patesville, visited Miss Eula Richardson last Sunday.

Messrs. Tom McCans, Ed. Smith and Press Richardson visited in our town last Sunday.

Mr. S. M. Wrather and Miss Ola McGill attended the laying of the corner stone at St. Martin's.

Messrs. R. T. O'Bryan and Gus W. Richardson made a flying trip to the city last Tuesday.

Mr. Fred Kaye, of Vine Grove, was in town last week looking after the interest of his firm.

Mr. Alex Montgomery was in town last week en route to Louisville with two car loads of stock.

Mr. Tom McDonough, of Woodland, was the guest of Mr. Joe Cosby several days last week.

Mr. Lawrence Bewley and Maud Osborne, of Guston, visited Mrs. J. K. Bramlett last Sunday.

Mr. Joe Cosby went to Fairfield last Sunday to see his best girl. May be he did but I doubt it.

Miss Nettie Fullenwider and brother, Master Perry, of Alton, are visiting their sister, Mrs. J. K. Bramlett.

Mr. J. T. Jones and little daughter, Bettie, and Miss Hattie Warfield, visited friends at Rock Haven last week.

Mr. J. O. Cosby and Miss Board, Mr. J. T. Massey and Miss Daugherty attended church at St. Martin's last Sunday.

Miss Kyler returned to her home at Patesville last Sunday. We think she also carried off some of our boys' hearts.

The little school boy and his sweetheart who is so in love imagine that he would surely die if she should only smile on another.

Miss Ola McGill went to Hardinsburg last Saturday, her home in the future. We were loth to give Miss Ola up, but such is life, "Sweet William."

Rev. Father Riley, of Daviess county, was in town last Wednesday, en route to St. Martin's to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the new church.

The young people organized a club here last Saturday, object fun and amusement for the summer months. It is known as the Ekron Croquet and Lawn Tennis Club.

Masters O'Connell and Daugherty returned from Gethsemani College last Tuesday. O'Connell was awarded the gold medal as the most promising pupil of the school.

We were very much disappointed when we received word that the select dance to be given at Sulphur Springs last Wednesday was declared off. We hope it will be renewed with more success and we will be so fortunate as to receive an invitation.

Don't forget the picnic on the 15th of July. We hope to meet all of our old friends on that day and their father, sister, mother, brother—all who hold each other dear, to say nothing of the belles and their beaux.

Our little town is all excitement over the musical talent displayed by Master Percy Fullenwider. He is thirteen years old leader of a band, and showed a talent for music at the early age of four years. He surpasses any one I have ever heard handle the bow, and holds a fortune in the talent he possesses.

This week has been a week of mishaps. One of our young ladies killed a snake measuring four feet long. The special on Friday killed a large Plymouth Rock rooster for Mrs. Mattie Roberts. Last, but not least, my poor little pet chicken died of the "gape."

The following crowd attended the laying of the corner stone at St. Martin's last Thursday: Mrs. Carl Richardson, Mrs. Dr. Willett, Mrs. W. L. Archer, Misses Melissa Archer, Mollie Board, Mattie and Jennie Roberts, Lillie May Shacklett, Messrs. J. T. Massey, J. O. Cosby and Tim McAniff.

As No. 53 passed us on Friday night a sealed envelope was given to the agent for Mrs. D. S. Henry marked "Telegram, important." Thinking something serious had befallen our friend David, Mr. J. T. Jones secured a horse and at break-neck speed delivered the message. We patiently awaited his return to learn the contents. It runneth thus, "Will not be home to-night. Am ordered to Owensboro by the Company." Some one remarked that Mr. Jones ought to charge him five dollars for his trouble. Laughingly he remarked, "No, that when young married men tried to save their wives any uneasiness they should have all the encouragement they could get." And we second the motion and give three cheers for you, Davy, and hope you will keep up your "rep."

We were so fortunate as to have an opportunity to attend the laying of the corner stone of St. Martin's new church on last Thursday, June 22nd. Services of the day were opened by the Bishop of Mass. Following was confirmation of the children of the Diocese. At 8 o'clock was high mass and sermon by Father York, assisted by Father O'Sullivan as Deacon, Father Fitzgerald as master of ceremonies, Father Hetherman and O'Sullivan attendant. It was a day of rejoicing for the people of St. Martin's, for it was the beginning of a monument to be erected to the worship of that Heavenly Spirit, the dispenser of all good. And the congregation of St. Martin's, aided by their beloved pastor, Father Fitzgerald, have striven to make this the house of God, a substantial, as well as one of the most beautiful churches in Meade county, and when they have left this struggling world the church of St. Martin's will stand as a monument to their names, and many an old person's heart will fill with gratitude as they totter onward to the grave when they hear their children say, "My father helped build the church of St. Martin's." The church is of stone and brick, 150 by 110 feet, with a 20-foot ceiling. In the corner stone was placed the necessary documents, containing the name of our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIII, the names of our President, Governor, Pastor and Rt. Rev. Geo. McCloskey, also the names of the church building committee, some old coins presented by one of the members, and a copy of the county paper. After the usual ceremonies the corner stone was placed to stand for generations to come, and St. Martin will shower blessings on his people for showing their love of him by erecting in his name a magnificent house for the worship of God.

WE THINK.

Miss Ola's favorite flower is "Sweet William."

Gene Guedry is a splendid workman when the sun is not shining.

Gus W. Richardson cut quite a figure with his whiskers cut "a la mode."

That you scribe would have had a fight on hands if it had not been we were small enough to dodge the compounder of pills when he tackled us for writing him up.

That he should not lay himself liable to be "writ up."

CHENAUET.

Mr. Jno. P. Haswell, Jr., is the guest of Mr. Jas. A. Allen.

Miss Maggie Brodie was the guest of Miss Kate Allen Monday last.

Mrs. Sallie Frymire was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Frymire last Sunday.

Mr. Jas. Allen was the guest of Mrs. Jas. Cunningham last Thursday.

Miss Claude Frymire, of Ekron, is the guest of Miss Gertie Elder of this place.

Mrs. Bert Cunningham was the guest of Mrs. L. E. Allen last Monday evening.

Miss Katie and Mary Allen were the guests of Miss Zilpha Frymire last Sunday.

Miss Eunice Crosson, of Cloverport, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Zilpha Frymire.

Mr. Noah Cunningham, of Louisville, is at S. T. Elder's the guest of his wife and daughters.

Miss Isabelle Pike, of Elint Island, was the guest of Miss George Cunningham last week.

Mrs. Ruth Gardner, and Mrs. Henry Stallman were the guests of Mrs. Melissa Cunningham last Thursday.

Mr. Jas. Allen, of this place, was in Hardinsburg last Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

FELIX MONROE ASSIGNS.

Attachment Suits Force Him to Put His Business Into Other Hands.

As Mr. Monroe is well known in Breckeenridge county, having kept a store for several years in Hardinsburg and more recently at Glendene, the following from the Louisville Post may prove interesting to our readers:

"F. Monroe, trading and doing business as F. Monroe & Co., filed a deed of assignment in the County Clerk's office this morning. He names B. M. Creel as assignee.

Though the assets and liabilities are small, the story of Mr. Monroe's failure is interesting. Until a few weeks ago he was conducting a small grocery and dry goods store at Madison, Ind. Finding business dull there, he resolved to place that store in charge of his son and open another in this city.

A few days ago he opened a grocery on Frankfort avenue, near Pope street. His creditors at Madison learned of his new venture, and supposing that he was intending to leave the State without paying them, filed attachment suits. The creditors of his little store here heard of it, and he decided this morning that he had better give an equal show at his assets and made an assignment. The exact amount of the assets and liabilities is not known as yet, but is small."

The Blue and Gray.

"The Magazine which began publication, under the above name, in January, is very rapidly coming to the front as one of the most popular American monthlies. As its name implies, it is devoted principally to reminiscences and original stories of the late war, written by survivors of both sides. The illustrations appear very favorably with those of the older magazines as do also the character of the articles. It is one of the most interesting publications of the day to both old and young.

The regular price is 25c per month, but The Cincinnati Tribune Company has just made an exclusive contract for its territory, by which the regular readers of The Tribune can secure the Blue & Gray for the remarkably low price of 10c per month.

Full particulars as to how the Blue & Gray can be obtained at this price can be found in any issue of The Daily Tribune.

"Quot" is married.

Mr. John C. French, of Union Star, Ky., and Miss Emma Bauer of Evansville, came to this city on Wednesday last week and were married by Rev. Frank Edgingborough. They took dinner at the Cottage Hotel and left for Union Star, their future home.—Cannelton Times-Telephone.
